Press Statement for Immediate Release

Freetown, 12th December 2020: 1:00pm Statement on the Re-run and Bye-elections

On Saturday 12th December 2020, the National Election Watch (NEW) deployed 235 stationed observers in all 5 election locations (Constituency 110, 078, Ward 226, 287 and 348, in Western Rural, Bo, Moyamba and Karene Districts respectively). In addition, NEW deployed supervisors and roving observers who served as incident reporters and support the problem-solving mechanism in our observation strategy. Reporting instruments were developed – Checklists and incidents reporting forms, and observers trained and accredited to report accurately their observation. NEW commends all voters who had turned out so far to exercise their civic right.

This statement is offered by NEW on the Re-run and Bye-elections conducted on 12th December 2020. The purpose is to support the country’s efforts to conduct peaceful polls that are participatory, credible, transparent, and impartial to inform the public about events on the field so far.

Critical Incidents

- In Centre 15089, Polling Station 3 Community Center Hamilton, there was chaos at the station between the NEC official and a voter. The voter was caught taking a snapshot of his marked ballot. He was intercepted and asked to delete the photo by the NEC official. After heated argument, he was handed over to the police who checked the phone and the photo deleted.

- In Centre 15093, Polling Station 6, Lady Patricia Kabba Secondary School, Goderich, a voter also took a snapshot of the vote. He was intercepted and warned by the NEC official that if such action is repeated, he will be handed over to the police.

- In Centre 15087, Polling Station 14, R.E.C. Primary School, Ogoo Farm, a voter came to the Polling Station with a fake ID card and the NEC official asked her to go out. The party agents however protested that she should be arrested, and she was handed over to the police.

- In Kent Village, the Minister of Lands and Country Planning Dr. Dennis Sandi went into polling centre 15084 with 2 vehicles (Toyota Land Cruiser registered No. AEE 403 and a blue Jeep with registration No. AMK 884) and men dressed in black suits and an armed Military personnel even before polls opened and was obstructing the work of NEC. He defied the assigned security personnel deployed at the polling station and insisted on staying at the polling centre, though he was not accredited. The roving police patrol headed by AIG Brima Jah also approached him, but he still resisted to leave the polling centre. The men in black suits that were with the Minister threatened the ONS Regional Coordinator of Western Rural District who was also roving that she would lose her job for asking the Minister to leave the centre.
- Vehicle with registration DPT. LEADER HOP was spotted at a polling precinct in Tokeh Village.

- A polling centre 15079 at John Obey, polling started at 8:30am because voters refused to vote as the centre was not located at its designated location. The centre was eventually relocated at the community centre as designated.

- NEW observed a number of vehicles without number plates plying across the polling centre in Constituency 110.
